

OurCrowd Highlights 14 of Its Portfolio Stars at CES

OurCrowd, Israel's most active venture investor showcases some of the best tech at the world's largest tech show

Las Vegas, Nevada – January 7, 2019 - OurCrowd, a global investment platform and Israel's most active venture investor will showcase some of its market leading portfolio from Israel and around the globe at this year's Consumer Electronics Show (CES.) Learn more about how equity crowdfunding is opening up investment opportunities to accredited investors in a wide range of sectors including Artificial intelligence, Mobility, Drones and more.

OurCrowd Founder & CEO Jon Medved says, "For once, CES attendees will actually be able to invest in some of the exciting startup companies that they see at the show. These companies are funded through our unique democratic platform of venture capital where accredited investors can start making intelligent startup investments with as little as $10,000. Investors may want to set aside some of the money they were planning on spending at the tables and visit us first."
